THE NORTHERN NECK.

A SPLENDID OUTLOOK FOR BRYAN AND SEWELL.

New Campaign Clubs Organizing—A Marriage—The Crops—Signs of Mark Hanna's Doodle—Personal and General.

COMORN, KING GEORGE COUNTY, VA., October 24.—(Special.)—Some very fine work has been done in all the counties of the Northern Neck this week for Democracy. New Bryan and free-silver clubs have been organized, and many members have been added to the older clubs. Not less than 100 voters have been added to the Democratic party in the Neck since last Saturday, and it is now almost certain that Bryan will receive the largest vote cast in the Neck for a Democratic President since the war. The Republicans meanwhile have lost neither time nor opportunity in their efforts to increase their party vote. But, in this section of the country, at least, the gold standard and 15-cent-dollar doctrine fail to allure the working people. A number of fruit-trees, such as plums, pears, and peaches, are in full bloom, and present a spring-like appearance.

Mr. William L. Montague and Miss Alice Jones, of this county, were united in marriage on Thursday of this week.

Miss Margaret S. Brown, an accomplished young lady of this neighborhood, will leave in a few days for Baltimore, where she will spend the winter.

Mr. R. W. Furlong, of Leo, this county, is visiting relatives in Virginia county.

Miss Jessie Baker, of Shiloh, this county, left yesterday for South Carolina, where she will spend the winter with her brother, Rev. Thomas P. Baker.

There will be the greatest scarcity of fruit here this winter almost ever known. The crop of winter apples was rather light, and in some parts of the county not a bushel was left by the storm of several weeks ago.

Thoroughly reliable advices from the other counties of the Eighth District indicate that Mr. Rixey's majority over Mr. McCall will greatly exceed Mr. Meredith's majority two years ago.

The latest intelligence from the south side of the Rappahannock, received here this week, is to the effect that Hon. W. A. Jones's majority will be the largest ever given a Democratic candidate in the District, and that "Mr. Tyler will run way behind his ticket."

The drought has reached distressing proportions here. A good deal of the small grain seeded early in the fall is "dry-rotting" in the ground. Everything is so dry and parched that a large proportion of the shocks "snap" up and blow away while the corn is being shocked.

A magnifying-glass can scarcely find the Palmer-Buckner wing of the Republican party of this county now.

Some things begin to look as if some of Hanna's corruption fund has reached this section. Some of the "boys" seem to be "mush" and hither-to-two symptoms that generally precede election-day in certain quarters. The local campaigners are "mightly dressed up" and busy—"a sure sign."

Slender Campbell's Vocal Class for operatic instruction commences first Tuesday in November. Ladies' afternoon, gentlemen evenings. A few vacancies only. Apply 612 east Franklin.

WYTHEVILLE.

To Ship Cattle to England—Still at Large—Serious Fight.

WYTHEVILLE, VA., October 24.—(Special.)—Several of the cattle raisers of this county, including Lieutenant-Governor Kent, and Messrs. James H. and William McGavock, are making arrangements to ship their fat cattle to England, as the price offered here is too low. Governor Kent alone will have some fifteen car-loads, or 30 head.

Anna Wampler, who shot and killed his father, Henry Wampler, on Cripple creek in this county, Tuesday, is still at large, and as yet no effort has been made to arrest him.

There was a fight at Ivanhoe Wednesday, during which one of the men was knocked in the head with a stone, from the effects of which serious results may follow. The man who dealt the blow escaped into North Carolina.

John S. Wise and ex-Lieutenant-Governor J. Hoge Tyler are advertised to speak here next Tuesday.

Judge Samuel W. Williams and General Walker will both close the canvass in the mineral belt or lower end of this county.

Frank Brown, who has been at Asheville, N. C., for some months on account of ill health, has returned home here, but very little better. He has consumption.

Mrs. George Bowers, who has been on a visit to E. H. Limberger, on Lawyers' Hill, has returned to her home, in Washington city.

Mrs. Sarah Bogle is very ill at her daughter's, Mrs. A. H. Gibbons's, in West Wytheville.

Miss Jarvis, who has been boarding here for some months, has returned to her home, in Petersburg.

Sheriff Horder continues quite sick of rheumatism at his home, on Fourth avenue.

Mrs. Logan, wife of Rev. Dr. M. P. Logan, is very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Kent have returned from New York.

GAVETY NEAR COBBHAM.

An Elegant Reception—List of the Guests.

KESWICK, VA., October 24.—(Special.)—Thursday evening the Misses Page gave an elegant reception at their residence, near Cobham, in this county. From far and near the guests gathered, and when the revelry began the large and tastefully-decorated ball-room was filled to overflowing with the guests, wit, and beauty of this old Commonwealth. Richmond, Warrenton, and Charlottesville had fair representatives present to mingle with the elite of Albemarle, and the University also sent a large company to reinforce the gay throng.

To the inspiring strains of a Richmond band the ball began, and save for the time devoted to delicious refreshments, the guests swept on at high tide until the dawn gathered and the regretful cadence of "Home, Sweet Home," fell upon the crisp morning air.

The entertainment was a charming one in every detail, and was thoroughly enjoyed by the large company present.

Among the guests were the Misses Page, Morris, Lewis, Long, Mann, Rives, Pace, Fox, Davidge, Thompson, Brown, Hicks, McGlone, Martin, Walker, Nelson, and Mesdames Page, Hazell, Walker, Lovell, Potts, McMurdo, Grattan, McGlone, Lewis, Boocock, Mann, Money, and Morris.

The gentlemen were Messrs. Boocock, Page, Randolph, Long, McMurdo, Fox, McGlone, Chamber, Morris, Lewis, Rives, Potts, Macdon, Thumman, Ruffin, Dickinson, Walker, McMurdo, Chesie, Harringer, Money, Nelson, Everett, Brown, McIntosh, Gray, Hodge, Royaster, Bowcock, White, McCue, Langhorne, Bailey, Groner, Murphy, Bergen, Smith, Bowe, Shins, Farish, Thornley, Turner, Dubney, Lyman, and Cook.

The ladies who received were Miss Ella and Miss Constance Page, Miss Hicks, Miss Walker, and Mrs. E. Q. Money.
